The Deadline to Apply for a Scholarship to the National Patient Education Conference is Only a Week Away!

There's only one week left to apply for a scholarship to the 2015 National Patient Education Conference in Nashville, TN! The scholarship application deadline is Friday, March 27, 2015.

Thanks to the generosity of our many, valued donors, the Scleroderma Foundation is able to provide scholarships for individuals who may otherwise not be able to attend our annual National Patient Education Conference.

Please visit our website to learn about the application requirements and guidelines, and to download the application. If you have questions, please call Tracey O. Sperry at (800) 722-4673 or email tsperry@scleroderma.org.

Join us on Capitol Hill, April 27-29, 2015!

If you are a person living with scleroderma, are a good listener and speaker, have an interest in the political process, and are willing to tell your story to our lawmakers on Capitol Hill, we need your help!

In 2014, you helped make our congressional outreach effort a success and we need your help again in 2015 to ensure that "scleroderma" remains listed as a condition eligible for study through the Department of Defense (DOD) Peer-

Reviewed Medical Research Program (PRMRP)
in FY 2016.

Our legislative agenda for this Congress also includes the re-introduction of the Scleroderma Research and Awareness Bill and acquiring the necessary co-sponsorships, as well as reminding Senators who are currently working on the FY 2016 DOD appropriations bill, that "scleroderma" must be included on the next PRMRP eligible conditions list.

All interested persons must submit an application (you can download a Word or PDF version). Scholarship opportunities are available. The deadline to apply is 5:00 p.m. Eastern on Friday, March 27, 2015.

We hope to see you there!
