

2010 Grants

Investigator	Institution	Project Title	Grant Duration	Amt Granted
Andreea M. Bujor, M.D. (New) Recipient of The Walter A. Coyle Memorial Research Grant Award, made possible through the generosity of the New England Chapter of the Scleroderma Foundation.	Boston University	The role of caveolin-1 overexpression in scleroderma fibrosis	Three Years	$150,000.00
Harrison Farber, M.D. (Est.) Recipient of The Mark Flapan Award presented to a recipient of a research grant whose score ranks among the top two scored proposals.	Boston University	The "PAH Phenotype" in Limited Systemic Sclerosis	Two Years	$150,000.00
Jessica Gordon, M.D. (New)	Hospital for Special Surgery	Gene Expression Profiling and Predictors of Outcome in Systemic Sclerosis	Three Years	$150,000.00
Erica L. Herzog, M.D., Ph.D. (Est.)	Yale University	Semaphorin 7a-Mediated Regulation of Fibrocyte Biology in Scleroderma ILD	Two Years	$150,000.00
Eileen Hsu, M.D. (New) Recipient of The Marta Marx Eradication of Scleroderma Award, presented to a recipient of a research grant whose score ranks among the top two scored proposals.	University of Pennsylvania	HIGF-II-mediated fibrosis in systemic sclerosis	Three Years	$150,000.00
Edward B. Loeff, Ph.D. (Est.)	Mayo Clinic Rochester	TGF-beta Regulated Fibrosis	Two Years	$150,000.00
Arnold Postlethwaite, M.D. (Est.)	The University of Tennessee Health Science Center	Ssc Platelet Phenotype Effected by Cytokines	Two Years	$150,000.00

	Total Granted 2010:	$ 1,050,000.00
--	---------------------	-----------------

All grants funded by the Scleroderma Foundation.