NEW Virtual Support Group Meeting on January 28

Due to technical difficulties, we are postponing the video portion of our NEW Virtual Support Group meeting on Saturday, January 28. But...

We are so excited to get this initiative off the ground that we are moving forward with this first Virtual meeting, but with new focus. We will spend our time with participants introducing themselves and sharing their experiences. We also will have time for you to share your ideas for future topics for the 2017 Support Group Meetings (both in-person and virtual).

Please note that we also have shortened the meeting to 11-12:30pm.

To access the January 28th meeting, click on the link below from GoToMeeting:
