

2017 STEPPING OUT FOR A CURE WALK Registration Opens Today

REGISTRATION OPENS TODAY!

The Scleroderma Foundation Greater Washington, DC Chapter (SFGWDC) encourages you to participate in our 7th Annual Stepping Out to Cure Scleroderma Greater Baltimore 5K Walk/Run on Saturday, May 20, 2017.

This fun-filled, family event offers a wonderful atmosphere to lift the spirits of family, friends and patients with scleroderma. Come and enjoy lots of door prizes, refreshments, a bouncy house, and great people! The event takes place at Atholton High School in Columbia, MD.

We look forward to seeing all of the teams this year!

Pay Tribute To a Loved One: We loved sharing stories of our walk participants and paying tribute to family members last year in our newsletter. If you are interested in sharing your story or paying tribute to a family member in our upcoming newsletter articles about the 2017 Stepping Out to Cure Walk, please contact Executive Director Carole Bernard at cbernard@scleroderma.org.

The event is hosted by SFGWDC and sponsored by the Atholton High School and the Atholton Athletic Boosters.

Special Thanks to Our National Sponsors

2017 National Bronze Sponsor
