

Basketball Tournament Raises Funds for Research

The 9th Annual BallinForACure fundraiser will be held on December 17, 2016 at Loyola Blakefield, in Towson, MD.

BallinForACure is a 3v3 basketball tournament that seeks to raise money and awareness for the Johns Hopkins Scleroderma Center. The event is held by SFGWDC Board Member TJ and Casey Keilty, in memory of their mother Cathi Keilty, who lost her battle with Scleroderma in 2008.

If you are interested in participating, there is still time to register. Registration and additional information is available at www.ballinforcure.com.
